Motion on Petition and Request for Information from the United States District [Court] for the District of Puerto Rico

To the Honorable Court:

☐ No Self-Addressed Stamped Envelope
☒ No Copy Provided
FR

The petitioner most respectfully appears before this Honorable Court. He states that on July 6, 2021, the attorney in charge of the case sent a document attached to this motion which reads as follows:

1) That the petitioner most respectfully submits to this Honorable Court that the legal representative in the case is not my current counsel and I hereby inform this Honorable Court that as of the receipt of this Motion on Petition and Request for Information we expect that all notices or orders

are to be sent directly to the petitioner mentioned above,

Mr. Pedro Ruiz Villegas

2) That the petitioner most respectfully submits the following to this Honorable Court. He states that the document that Sonia S. Sierra Sepulveda, Esq. delivered to me via mail specifies that an attached document related to the Proof of Claim filed by this Petitioner before the Bankruptcy Court in the PROMESA case arrived and this document also specifies that the Commonwealth is seeking to disallow the claim sent by this servant by arguing that the petitioner omitted to provide prima facie evidence to support an insured claim. And according to Sonia S. Sierra, Esq., she has not intervened in the case and therefore it is requested that this Honorable Court might provide a legal representation that can pursue the appropriate legal procedures, due to the fact that the petitioner is unable to afford the cost of private legal representation due to the financial conditions he is facing. He lacks assets and wealth to cover the costs of adequate legal representation. He therefore petitions this Honorable Court to request the corresponding legal representation on the grounds of indigence.

and thus be able to proceed with the corresponding Statutes of the case [sic].

3) That the petitioner most respectfully submits the following to this Honorable Court. He states that the documents that have been sent by this Honorable Court have been delivered to the petitioner with delay due to the fact that they have been sent directly to the former legal representative Sonia S. Sierra Sepulveda, Esq., and all the documents that this Honorable Court sent to the petitioner arrived at her offices and then Atty. Sonia would send me those documents, and then when the Corrections Department delivered them to me there was not enough time to comply with the Statute of Limitations and therefore I am informing this Honorable Court to make it aware of the reason for any delay and [requesting] respectfully reconsider my case, allowing me to carry on with the proceedings of this case.

4) That the petitioner most respectfully comes before this Honorable Court and states that Sonia S. Sierra, Esq. specifies in the letter that I received on July 6, 2021, in which there is an argument that the petitioner failed to provide prima facie evidence to support an insured claim.

Respectfully, the petitioner did comply with these requirements of evidence, which were as follows:

(1) Proof of claim so as to be actually received on or before the applicable bar date: General Bar Day: May 29, 2018, at 4:00 pm, and this was sent on March [illegible], 2018

(2) Court of Appeals, in re Administrative Review, Case # PA-9413-44 Codified P-16, regarding collection of payrolls – 8/31/2016 which was when the Administrative Remedy was submitted.

(3) The Petitioner sent the Inmate Transaction Report for 6/07/2013 through 1/17/2014 in which (7) payrolls are reflected, which are the following:

- 1) Payroll: June 2013 - $49.16
- 2) Payroll: July 2013 - $16.00
- 3) Payroll:
- 4) Payroll: August 2013 - $16.80
- 5) Payroll: Special, May 2013 - $95.00
- 6) Payroll: Carpentry, November 2013 - $46.50
- 7) Payroll: September 2013 - $100.00

(4). The Petitioner filed an Administrative Remedy on July 16, 2014 in which he specified the claim for payment as a construction worker and I was informed that I had been paid as a maintenance worker, for which they have to pay me the remainder of what had been stipulated as a worker and the deputy in charge, but the head of my work station informed me that the problem had been worked out and that it is a matter of waiting. I have been waiting for more than six (6) years for this process.

5) The petitioner asserts, most respectfully before this Honorable Court, that the conditions at the federal level are such that the motions that have been filed have to be certified in the English language.

Most respectfully before this Honorable Court, the petitioner makes it known that he does not know how to certify the motion in the English language, and he requests that this Honorable Court assign a person who can represent the petitioner and who can translate the documents that have been filed by the petitioner due to the fact that the petitioner lacks the assets and wealth that would cover the costs of the fees generated by this motion, on the grounds of indigence.

6) The petitioner most respectfully informs this Honorable Court that on July 16, 2014, the petitioner filed the Administrative Remedies and everything related to this Claim of Payment case for work performed by the inmate petitioner, and furthermore the exact address is being sent where this Honorable Court can send Notices or Order Rulings that this Honorable Court may issue.

7) The petitioner most respectfully requests that this Honorable Court assess this case in detail and that consideration be given so that the proceedings might continue and the petitioner be excused for the delays that have arisen previously,

About which I gave information, and we hope that no further inconveniences will arise. It is also requested that this Honorable Court be made aware that the Commonwealth is making a claim under the Bankruptcy Law (PROMESA). When the CORRECTIONS DEPARTMENTs is asked to carry out construction work and they use inmates for that work and the money is allocated in advance whereby if a private company completes the work, they are awarded the corresponding payments. Why is it that if a prisoner does the work, they do not pay him and say that there is no money available? When that money has already been allocated and they use as an excuse that the Fiscal Control Board does not want to send the money, and the Treasury is limited in paying. Therefore, we hope that an investigation will be carried out into the work that was done and who granted the permits, who must respectably comply with the corresponding payments, or what did they do with the allocated money.

For the reasons mentioned above, we ask that this Honorable Court resolve this matter and consequently issue an order granting [this motion] and granting the corresponding payments.

I certify that what is set forth in this motion is true, accurate and correct, and [request] that a copy of this Honorable Court's ruling be sent to the appropriate parties.

Relief Sought

The petitioner most respectfully requests that this Honorable Court grant a hearing for the parties to appear, if necessary, and that Legal Representation can be granted to the petitioner on the grounds of indigence, and that what is admissible by law be granted, according to the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

Most respectfully submitted:

2) The Petitioner most respectfully states to this Honorable Court that the document Attorney Sonia S. Sierra Sepúlveda sent me by mail specifies that an attached document arrived related to the Proof of Claim filed by this Petitioner with the Bankruptcy Court in the PROMESA case, and said document also specifies that the Commonwealth is seeking to disallow the claim I sent, by arguing the Petitioner failed to provide prima facie evidence to support a secured claim. According to what Attorney Sonia S. Sierra stated, she has not intervened in the case. It is therefore requested that this Honorable Court provide a legal representation that will be able to pursue the appropriate legal procedures, due to the fact that the Petitioner cannot afford the cost of Private Legal Representation, on account of the economic conditions he is facing. He has no assets or wealth to defray the expenses occasioned by an adequate legal representation. He therefore petitions that this Honorable Court, based on Indigency, request a legal representation and thus be able to proceed with the applicable Statutes [sic].

3) The Petitioner most respectfully appears before this Honorable Court and states that the documents that have been sent by the Honorable Court have been received by the Petitioner with a delay in time, because they have been sent directly to the legal representative, Attorney Sonia S. Sierra Sepúlveda, and all the documents this Honorable Court was sending to the Petitioner arrived at her offices. And after that Attorney Sonia would send those documents to me. And when the Department of Correction would give them to me, I did not have sufficient time to comply with the Statutes of Limitation. For that reason, I am making it known to this Honorable Court and so that you may be aware of any delay, and that you respectfully reconsider me, and allow me to pursue the procedures in this case.

4) The Petitioner most respectfully states to this Honorable Court that Attorney Sonia S. Sierra makes a statement in the letter I received on July 6, 2021, where there is an argument that the Petitioner failed to provide prima facie evidence to support a secured claim.

Respectfully, the Petitioner met those evidentiary requirements:

Which were as follows:

*(1) Proof of Claim so as to be Actually Received on or Before the Aplicable [sic] Bar Date: General Bar Day: May 29, 2018 at 4:00 p.m.
It was sent on March 2, 2018.*

(2) Court of Appeals, regarding Administrative Review, Case # PA-9413-94, Codified P-16, regarding collection of Payroll – 8/31/16, which is when the Administrative Remedy was submitted.

(3) The Petitioner sent the Report of Transactions of the Inmate as of 6/07/2013 and up until 1/17/2014, which reflects (7) payroll periods, which are as follows:

- 1) Payroll: June 2013 – $49.16*
- 2) Payroll: July 2013 – $16.00*
- 3) Payroll:*
- 4) Payroll: August 2013 – $16.80*
- 5) Payroll: Special, May 2013 – $95.00*
- 6) Payroll: Carpentry, November 2013 – $46.50*
- 7) Payroll: September 2013 – $100.00*

(4) The Petitioner submitted an Administrative Remedy on July 16, 2014, which specified a claim for payment as a construction worker, and I was informed that I was paid as a maintenance worker, on which they have to pay me the rest of what is stipulated as a worker, and the Lieutenant in charge plus the boss for my work are telling me that they had fixed the problem, and that it's a matter of waiting, and I've been waiting for more than (6) years of the process.

5) The Petitioner most respectfully alleges to this Honorable Court that the conditions at the Federal level of motions that have been submitted have to be certified in the English language.

The Petitioner most respectfully makes known to you that he does not have the knowledge to be able to certify the Motion in the English language, and he asks this Honorable Court to assign a person to him to represent the Petitioner and be able to translate the documents submitted by the Petitioner, given that the Petitioner lacks the assets and wealth to be able to defray the costs of the professional fees generated by this Motion, due to Indigency.

6) The Petitioner most respectfully informs this Honorable Court that on July 16, 2014, the Petitioner submitted the Administrative Remedies and everything related to this case of a Claim for Payment of Work performed by the inmate Petitioner. I am also sending the exact address where this Honorable Court can send the Notifications or Order Decisions issued by this Honorable Court.

7) The Petitioner most respectfully requests of this Honorable Court that this case be evaluated in detail, and that in consideration thereof, the procedures go forward, and that the Petitioner may be excused for the lateness that has occurred before, of which I informed you, and we hope that more problems do not occur.

It is also requested that this Honorable Court become aware that the Commonwealth is making a claim under the law (PROMESA) on bankruptcy. When the Department of Correction is asked that they have to do construction work and they use inmates for that work, and the money is allocated in advance, on which, if a private company finishes the work, they give them the corresponding payments. Why, if an inmate is the one that does the work, don't they pay him? And they say that there is no money available, when that money has already been allocated, and they use, as an excuse, that the Fiscal Control Board does not want to send the money and the Treasury limits itself in paying. For all these reasons we hope that an investigation will be made on the work that was done and who granted these permits and respectfully has to make the corresponding payments, or what did they do with the allocated money?

For all of the foregoing reasons, we ask this Honorable Court, with what is stated above, to decide this matter, and, as a consequence, issue an order "finding merit," and granting the corresponding payments.

I certify that what is set forth in this motion is true, accurate, and correct, and [ask] that a copy of the decision taken by this Honorable Court be sent to the pertinent parties.

Prayer for Relief

The Petitioner most respectfully prays to this Honorable Court that it grant a hearing for the Parties to appear, if necessary, and to be able to grant the Petitioner a Legal Representation on the Grounds of Indigency, and to grant what is legally appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

Most respectfully submitted.
